BOARD OF ASSISTANTS.—SPECIAL MERTING.—The President having taken the chair, rose and informed the meeting that he had convened the Board to take into consideration the proposed law for the reorganization of the police and the Court of Sessions. It was necessary to be thus prompt in taking any action on the bill, as if it was delayed the bill might pass the Legislature before this Board could offer any opinion thereon. Several petitions were then presented, and among them one from John R. Burnett, the Assistant Clerk of the Board, asking for an enquiry into his conduct. A Special Committee was then appointed, to censist of Messrs. Lee, Graham, Conner, Baylis and O'Neil.

The Chair then read the preamble and resolutions which had been adopted by the Board of Aldermen in relation to the bill now before the Senate of the State for the reform of the Court of Sessions.

Mr. Graham made a long and vituperative speech against the Board of Aldermen, and denying the right of the Common Council to interfere with the State Legislature, except as it regards the financial affairs of the municipality.

After several speeches pro and con had been made, Mr. Graham replied, and insinuated that the Aldermen of the city were no better than so many loafers. "Loafing round the Court of Sessions," said the honorable member, "for the purpose of earning a patty pittance of four dollars per diem."

Mr. Lee said it was the first time he had heard that the Board of Aldermen were a set of loafers.

Mr. Graham said he did not say loafers, but he said they "loafed around."

Mr. Lee said if a man could loaf around without

Mr. Graham said he did not say loaters, but he said they "loafed around."
Mr. Lee said if a man could loaf around without being a loafer, why he did not understand the English language. He was certain that a deal of corruption existed in the Police Office.
Mr. Baylıs said, that if the police was corrupt, the Board would soon have an opportunity of remedying one half the corruption.
The preamble and resolutions were then passed by a party vote, and a special committee appointed.

The preamble and resolutions were then passed by a party vote, and a special committee appointed. Resolutions.—Authorizing the Fire and Water Committee to contract for a quantity of pipes, to be in readiness for the water to be brought from the

This resolution underwent a long discussion, but was ultimately adopted.

That the comptroller report the amount of fees received by each member of the Board of Aldermen, as judges of the criminal courts during the years 1838 and 1839, respectively. Adopted.

Requiring the Fire and Water Committee to report forthwith the amount of money expended by them during last year; stating also for what purpose the same was expended. Rejected.

Requiring the Committee on the Croton Water Works to report the amount of pipes already laid, and the quantity required for the completion of the Croton Aqueduct. Ordered to lie on the table.

Adjourned.

Necial Sessions.

JAN. 28.—Joe Clark, a loafer of the first water, was convicted of being a confirmed thief, and adjudged to suffer the six months.

A negro wench, dressed in the first style of the fashien, named Mary Holmes, was cenvicted of filehing wearing apparel to the tune of twenty one dollars, and also adjudged to the six months.

John Jacobs, a loaferish looking vagabond, was charged with keeping a little hell, and with assaulting one of his victims after he had plucked him—John was convicted and adjudged to the six months.

Washington Dixon, not him of literary renown, was charged with committing a petty larceny; and having been at the Island before, he was sent there again for the six months.

Mary Sullivan, a beauty with a pair of precious black eyes, was convicted of filching crockery ware from the store of J. C. Luckey & Co. Mary was adjudged to the six months.

George Thomas, who escaped a conviction a few week's since, was again brought up, charged with stealing five grates in one day from a variety store. George was sent for the six months.

George o'Brien, who said he had been only four days from Sing Sing, was charged with stealing. George said he got nothing to eat, and he stole in order to get sent to his old quarters. The Court adjudged him to the six months. The Court then adjourned.

JAN. 28 — Sneaking Negroes. — For some time past the house formerly known as the Clarendoa Hotel has been closed, in consequence of some litigation, and the property placed under the care of one William M. S. Garrison, who resided at 135 Perry. st. — Garrison was instructed to sleep at the Clarendon every night, and to keep a sharp look out. On Monday night he was disturbed by a noise, and thinking that some of the sneaks had made an attempt on the premises, he hid himself in such a place as would command a view of the door. While there, he saw premises, he hid himself in such a place as would command a view of the door. While there, he saw two negroes, with loaded pockets, attempting to get out. One of them succeeded, but the other was held by Garrison, who took him down Elm street to the watch house; and while going along, he confessed having stolen two glass pitchers and a box of eigars. In the morning he was brought up for examination, and fully committed.

A Sanctimonious Loafer, and how he robbed his fellow boarder, and how he tried to come the double shuffle over "the Indefatigable."—A few days since, a Mr. Halsey applied to the magistrate for the assistance of an officer, to ferret out an audacious robbery, which had been committed at a boarding and lodging house, at No. 76 Nassau street. The magistrate put the affair into the hands of that indefatigable officer, Robert M. Bowyer, who immediately went to the house in Nassau street, and found that suspicious had fallen on an Englishman, whose name did not transpire, and a sanctimonious Yankee loafer named Joseph B. Cornelius. "The indefatigable" made several bootless visits to the boarding house, but could not arrive at any definite conceius on. Each time he saw the Yankee loafer, the ing house, but could not arrive at any definite conclusion. Each time he saw the Yankee loafer, the latter would insinuate some fresh suspicions against the Eaglishmun, and express his anxiety for the matter to be set at rest. At last Bowyer began to suspect his Yankee friend, and on Monday he determined to take him into custody, when lo? it turned out that this sanctimonions loafer had committed the robbery himself, and that he had sold the valuables taken from Mr. Halsev's trunk, to Brock of Chatham street. On proof of this fact, he was brought up for examination, and the stolen property having been identified, he was fully committed. In his possession, when arrested, was found a handsome blue cloak and other property, which now remains in the hands of the Police Magistrates.

DEAR SIR,—I should almost consider myself devoid of gratitude if I did not thank you for the good that your Red Drop has done one. Having been led away by the follies of youth, I was se unfortunate as to contract that disease which your preparation professes to cure, and after trying almost every medicine that the quacks of this city endeavor to palm upon the commanity. I found myself wasting away, and the disease fast undermining my constitution. I had atmost abandoned the hope of being restored to my former good health, when I procured a bottle of your Red Drop, and am now entirely recovered, without any bad effects of the disease remaining. My dear, sir, all the retuss I can ever make you, will be to recommend it to those who have been as unfortunate as myself, assuring them, with the utmost confidence, that it will not fail in producing a speedy and lasting cure.

SUSPENSION OF SPECIE FAYMENTS—The crisis has now arrived to test the merits of the cash system, for however flattering the credit system may appear on paper; its effects upon individuals often prove ruinous in the extreme. In London and Paris, the consumers have set their face against it and consequently, a number of establishments have sprung up of late years that de a cash business only. This has been termed by some the European system, and has but recently been introduced into New York.

PHILLIPS, of 106 Waliam street, does not claim for himself the honor of its introduction, but he does believe that he carries it out to a greater extent than any of his rivais. For instance, they content themselves with purchasing for cash of the jobbers, now he remits funds to Europe, to buy of the manufacturers direct, thereby avoiding all those accumulated profits which enhance the value of articles before they reach the customer. The extensive patronage he has been honored with, must be a sufficient voucher of public opazion, as to the way he carries out his assertion of produci. "after tate garment, cut in a saperior style and made by no but the most finished workmen. He effects a saving a 30 per cent on the prices charged by isaues wan profess to furnish the best goods, and he does this notwithstanding the superiority of his style and elegance of his garments. Philips will also warrant his coats to be equal to any mode in Broadway, and he considers them the fairest standard by which a comparision can be instituted.

DR. WM. EVANS' CELEBRATFD MEDICINES are composed of vegetable substances, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give an impulse or strength to the arterial system—the blood i quickened and equalized in its circultion through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbant and exhalent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, and obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.

These medicines after much auxious trial and research, having been brought by the proprietor to the present state of perfection, supercede the use of the innumerable other medicines, and are so well adapted to the frame, that the use of them, by maintaining the body in the due performance of its functions, and preserving the vital stream in a pure and healthy state-causes it to last many years longer than it otherwise would, and the mind to become so composed and tranquil, that old age, when it arrives, will appear a blessing, and not (as to many who have neglected their constitution, or had them injured by medicines administered by ignorance) a source of misery and abherence:

who have neglected their constitution, or had them injured by medicine's administered by ignorance) a source of misery and abherence:

They are so compounded, that by strengthening and equalizing the action of the heart, liver, and other viscera, they expel the bad, acrid, or morbid a atter, which readers the blood unpure, out of the circulation, through the exerctory duets into the passage of the bawels, so that by the brisk or slight evacuations, which may be regulated by the doses, always remember ing that while the evacuations from the bowels are kept up, the excretions from all the other vessels of the body will also be going on in the same proportion, by which means the blood in variably becomes purified.

Steady perseverance in the use of the medicines will undoubedly effect a cure, even in the most acute or obstinate diseases, but in such cases the dose may be augmented, according to the inveteracy of the desease; the medicines being so admirably adapted to the censtitution, that they may be taken at all times. In all cases of hypecondriacism, low spirits, palpitations of the heart, nervous irritability, nervous weakness, four albus, eminal weakness, indigestion, loss of appetite, flatulency, heart burn, general debility, hodily weakness, chlorosin, or green sickness, flatulent, or histerical faintings, histerics, headaches, hiccup, sea sickness, nightmare, gout, rheumatism, asthma, tie douloursux, cramp, spasmodic affections, in directions, and those who are victims to that must exeruciating disorder, gout, will find relief from their sufferings by a course of Dr. Wim. Evans' Fills Nauses, vomiting, pains in the side, limis, head stomach or back, dimness or centusion of sight, noises in the inside, alternate flushings of heat and chillness, tremors, watchings, agitation, anxiety, bad dreams, spasms, will in every ease be relieved by an occasional dose of Dr. Evans' medicines.

OF TO THE PUBLIC.—We call the special attention of the public to the inducements held out by SYLVESTER & Co 136 Broadway for investing in real estate, situated in New Orleans. Notwithstanding the attempts made by the pious Devid Hale of the Journal of Commerce, we have good reasons for knowing that the affair in question possesses the entire confidence of the community—and we recommend those persons who have any doubts, to call on Sylvester & Co. who are desirous of giving the most full and perfect satisfaction in reply to any apprices made.

MEDICAL CARD.—BR CARPENTER, No. 4 Feelt Slip, New York, deems it peoper occasionally to remind the public that he continues to administer to the affected at his old established Dispensary

To a vast number of the citizens of this metropoins he needs ne heralds to announce his victory over disease, in its most complicated and destructive forms nor cost ne deem it material the very specific in enumerating the names of the various malacies to which mankind and womankind are subject.

To strongers he begs leave most respectfully to remark, that he confines himself to office practice, and devotes himself personally to the welfare of his patients, keeps no assistants or shop boys, and has separate offices for the privacy of patients, who can never comerin contact.

Dr. Carpenter would add that he is regularly educated to the profession of medicine and surgery, and received his diploma in the year 1813, of the New York State Medical Society signed by the highly respected and much lamented John R. B. Rodgers, M. D., as President, and that he has for a long series of years devoted himself to the treatment and our of all delicate and private diseases.

If nearly thirty years assiduous and arduous application to the duties of the medical profession, and constant familiarity with every stegs and variety of a particular glass of diseases, aided by a collegiate and regular medical education, entitle the gractitioner to any preference over the mere tyro in the profession, Doctor Carpester deems it consistent and proper to direct the attention of a discersing public to the inference of the comparison, and an investigation of his claims.

(G2-FEINE'S ORRIS TOOTH PASTE for cleaning, preserving, and beautifying the teeth, received the first premium at the recent Fair of the American Institute.

This unequalied dentifrice gives to the Teeth a clean and pearly whitness, and removes and prevents every appearance of tartar; it also improves the color of the lips and gums, prevents and heals all olers of the mouth, arrests the progress of decay in the teeth, and imparts a peculiar and grateful sweetness to the breath.

(G2-FEINE'S The best article that we know of for cleaning, preserving and beautifying the teeth, is Peine's Orris Tooth Paste. It gives to them a clear and pearly whiteness, and imparts a peculiar and most grateful sweetness to the breath. We cordially commend it to the attention of our readers, especially to the female portion of taem. No toilet can be complete with out it."—Lades' Mag.

The unprecedented celebrity which this most excellent article for the teeth so speedify obtained under its original name of Orris Tooth Paste, has induced several unprincipled individuals to make base counterfeit preparations, under various names, of which beware, for they may probably prove highly injuriests to the teeth, and are no more to be compared with the genuine than Hyperion to a Setty. The criginal article has now the fac simile of the inventor and proprietor, G. W. Feine, upon the label, without which it is not genuine.
